Contents

Uwe Klawitter / Claus-Ulrich Viol:
   Introduction. Political Poetry as a Space for Conflict and Negotiation 7

Christian Schmitt-Kilb:
   "Poetry's a Line of Defence". Ecopoetry and Politics in the 21st Century 25

Anette Pankratz:
   "Rat-Catchers" or What? British Poets Laureate in the 20th and 21st Centuries 49

Scott Brewster:
   The Other Side. Proximity, Poetry and the Northern Irish Peace Process 73

Peter Robinson:
   Conflicts in Form. The Politics of Roy Fisher's City 95

Cécile Marshall:
   Political and Poetic Defiance in Tony Harrison 117

Michael Szczekalla:
   Glyn Maxwell. The Poet as a Citizen 137

Uwe Klawitter:
   'Doing Gender'. Poetic Configurations of Femininity and Masculinity 157

Gerold Sedlmayr:
   "I didn't graduate / I immigrate". West Indian British Poets and the Politics of Ethnicity 181

Cornelia Gräbner:
   Poetic Licence and Direct Address. Political Performance Poetry in Britain 205
Kathy-Ann Tan:
London Calling. The Poetics of Disruption and Social Resistance in the Works of Sean Bonney and Stephen Mooney 229

Andy Croft
in conversation with Uwe Klawitter / Claus-Ulrich Viol:
"Dreadfully Old-Fashioned". On Tradition and Commitment in Political Poetry 255

Contributors' Addresses 273